I hold your hands like ornaments
An all I meant was to be kind
An all I meant was to be kind

I pull your heart strings tighter
An play my song as loud as I can
I'll sing my heart out for you
I'll sing my heart out for you

How does all this feeling grow
How does all this feeling go on

[Musical Interlude]

I pull my sleeves up further in
I prepare to fight my demons
I must not lose again, this time

So wrap your arms around me
An sing the words as loud as you can
We are together in this world
Together in this world

How does all this feeling grow
How does all this feeling go on
How does all this feeling grow
How does all this feeling go on
An I will lift my head above the sky
An I will see the stars tonight

The stars tonight will brighten our faces our minds will be racing along with our hearts
Intertwined with love
The magic of us
