"Ride Strong"

So many pillars have fallen around us
So many mainstays gone by the wayside
The days are dark and shadows surround us
Yet we remain on the main line ride
Lost in our thoughts we contemplate
How all the world they mock our faith
Yeah short term loss we know it well
But we ain't on the train to hell

We are the keepers of the one true faith
We will press on as the hour grows late
We've come too far to side with wrong
Til Kingdom come we will ride strong

We ride strong to the setting sun
We ride strong til Jesus comes
We ride strong and endure the pain
We ride strong cause our death is gain

The tracks they run through forest and tunnel
We question not, we ain't at the helm
We've just begun to understand humble
And we all struggle to let go of self
We ride away from all we've known
Temptations rise so far from home
From false romance we turn away
Our sights are locked on heaven's gates

We are the keepers of the one true faith
We will press on as the hour grows late
We've come too far to side with wrong
Til Kingdom come we will ride strong

We ride strong to the setting sun
We ride strong til Jesus comes
We ride strong and endure the pain
We ride strong cause our death is gain

Comin' down the tracks through the dead of night
Comin' down the tracks while we're grey and old

Comin' down the tracks 'til we're shinin'
bright
Comin' down the tracks to the streets of gold

Comin' down the tracks through the dead of night
Comin' down the tracks while we're grey and
old
Comin' down the tracks 'til we're shinin'
bright
Comin' down the tracks to the streets of gold

We ride strong to the setting sun
We ride strong 'til Jesus comes
We ride strong and endure the pain
We ride strong 'cause our death is gain
