A million times, my private gang
I faced a star, my heart and hands
The life, inside
The moon was clear
Away you move and hold your hands
The dragonfly and lion's den

A million fates turn left, turn down
Unbuttoned minds yet unbeknown
And what's between your head and mind

We build our private rooms divine

A million fates turn left, turn down
Unbuttoned minds yet unbeknown
And what's between your head and mind
We build our private rooms divine

A millions fates turn left, turn down
