"Prisoner"

Does anyone care
When you close your eyes and disappear
Is anyone there
When you talk and you are nowhere near

Cause I can be clean and I can be wet
I can be yours when I regret
If I say the right things to you

I am a prisoner lost in your eyes
I am a lover in disguise

And when we go out
You say these things that go into my soul
They fill me with doubt
With all these thoughts that I cannot control

But I can be clean, I can be wet
I can be yours when I regret
If I say the right things to you

I am a prisoner lost in your eyes
I am a lover in disguise

I am a prisoner lost in your eyes
I am a lover in disguise
I am a prisoner lost in your eyes
I am a lover in disguise
