[Intro]

uhh...how could she?

why would she?

sighs

[Chorus]

Baby I Loved You

Why did you let me go?

Yes it hurts me

But I still want you to know

All the love we made

Can never be erased

And I promise you that you will never be replaced

Baby I Loved You

Why did you let me go?

Yes it hurts me

But I still want you to know

All the love we made

Can never be erased

And I promise you that you will never be replaced

[Verse]

Damn, oh this girl she really had me thinking

Making her the more reason the future we'd be living.

Together, and I know it wouldn't be forever

Cause I know good things don't last long

But we could've made it further.

All the things you told me,

All were lies I know,

Cuz if you felt how you said you felt

You just couldn't let me go.

Without a single reason

Not even a single fight

You gave the best of my life,

But with the lonliest nights.

I got it bad,

No I got it even worst then even Usher.

Cuz even though you did you I can't let go

No, I know it's not supposed to come back

I know that you won
I know that you left and never coming back.
Except the fact that your gone

[Chorus]

Baby I Loved You
Why did you let me go?
Yes it hurts me
But I still want you to know
All the love we made
Can never be erased
And I promise you that you will never be replaced

Baby I Loved You
Why did you let me go?
Yes it hurts me
But I still want you to know
All the love we made
Can never be erased
And I promise you that you will never be replaced

Baby I Loved You
Why did you let me go?
Yes it hurts me
But I still want you to know
All the love we made
Can never be erased
And I promise you that you will never be replaced

Baby I Loved You
Why did you let me go?
Yes it hurts me
But I still want you to know
All the love we made
Can never be erased
And I promise you that you will never be replaced

It's over...
