I remember
Engines mad me
Exercise in strategy
Then o'clock siren, class change quickly
'Don't be afraid, happens every day
Just about this time
You'll get use to it

We built the Starfighters
We built the Galaxies
Oh, to wake up
In Bomber City

The flightpath is my home
Got no need to cry
Aircraft sing me solemn lullabies
Bankers in bermuda shorts
Savoring an airshows

Take a look how fast those rascals fly

We built the Starfighters
We built the Galaxies
Oh, to wake up
In Bomber City

We thought we ruled the skies
It was a source of pride
Things have really changed there since then
Nothing's quite the same since back when

We built the Starfighters
We built the Galaxies
Oh, to wake up
In Bomber City
