How about a cup of coffee
Me and you, we can meet at the cafe
Parler while sippin' cappuccinos
If that ain't you, we can go hit a movie
Here I am all jittery and nervous
Got me feelin' that I'm really not good at this
In your mind I know your thinkin' what I'm up to
All I wanna do is try to get to know you

I can be the one
You know the one you don't know your lookin' for
We can be the spark
To start a fire that the world's been waitin' for

The greatest love affair started with hello
The greatest love song started with a note
And the mona lisa started with a stroke
Maybe me and you could be one of those
The greatest idea started with a thought
If I think hard enough I can win your heart
Cause the greatest love story that was ever told
Could be me and you
You just never know

I've been doin' all the talkin'
What's up with you, can you tell me what you're thinkin'
Am I off base
Slow down, stop walking
Take a breath, do you come here often
You say you do, and tommorow is the weekend
Do you bowl or are you up for rollerblading
Take my number, hit me up on my cell phone
Maybe later we can finish converstatin'

Yeah

I can be the one
You know the one you don't know your lookin' for
We can be the spark
To start a fire that the world's been waitin' for

The greatest love affair started with hello
The greatest love song started with a note
And the mona lisa started with a stroke
Maybe me and you could be one of those
The greatest idea started with a thought
If I think hard enough I can win your heart
Cause the greatest love story that was ever told
Could be me and you
You just never know

The strangest things have happened
And I don't even know your name
But I'm feelin' this connection
Tell me do you feel the same
It could be bigger than both of us
But first it has to start
One day people gonna look back at us as a work of art
