She's a girl, yeah
Standing on the city street
And she wants
To be on a sandy beach

Somewhere on a island
Waiting for her time to begin
While the tides
Rise and fall with the moon

Soon your heart will soar
And your heart will know
I'm waiting here for you
Waiting here for you

Take my hand, yeah
Let's walk along
The sandy beach
It's a place
Where it's blowing
In the sweet palm trees

And the waves, yeah
Are glistening in the sunset
And the ways that the air
Is soft and fresh

And I know you,
You and me, yeah
Like being tenderly
Tenderly, a memory away

She's a girl, yeah
Missing from the city street
And she's gone
To be on a sandy beach

Somewhere on a island
Waiting for her time to begin
Where the tides
Rise and fall with the moon

Soon your heart will soar
And your heart will know
I'm waiting here for you
Waiting here for you

Take my hand, yeah
Let's walk along on
The sandy beach
It's a place
Where it's blowing
In the sweet palm trees

And the waves, yeah
Are glistening in the sunset
And the ways that your hair
Lays upon your neck

And, I know
You and me, yeah
Like in eternity
Be eternally in love
