"Baby"

You broke some bones when we were young

I can remember how you moaned

So I carried you home like a baby

You were thirteen and I was twelve

I can remember how it felt

Wearing your broken body on like a lady

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby

If ever you need me

Just call me, I'll carry you home

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby

If ever you're broken

No reason to do it alone

We were both five, you started a fire

And for a moment, all was lost

But then the rain fell from the sky

It was magic

Couldn't believe how it came down

Puddles of water all around

But when the clouds were finally gone

It seemed tragic

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby

If ever you need me
Just call me, I'll carry you home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you're broken
No reason to do it alone
Baby, I know we've seen our share
Of hard times, you and me
But I want you to know that I will always
No matter what, come to you
Out of the mist or into the fire
Across the sea, the mountains, the desert
And if you need me, just call me
And I will carry you all the way home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you need me
Just call me, I'll carry you home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you're broken
No reason to do it alone
