I'm the pimp
The cop
The crooked politician
I'm a hooker
a thief and a beggar on the street

I'm a pimp
A cop
A crooked politician
I'm a hooker
A thief and a beggar on the street

Cause I'm the pimp
The cop
The crooked politician
I'm the hooker
The thief and the beggar on the street

Cause I'm the pimp
The cop
The crooked politician
I'm the hooker
The thief and the beggar on the street

Cause I'm Jesus Christ
On a cross
I'm the Devil in
Your sweetest dreams
I'm the man in the mask with the bomb in his hand
I'm the President of the U.S.S.A
I'm the kid in the factory
Making your shoes
I'm the girl on the billboard making the news
I'm the cancer that's living in your skin
They say you can always lose
But you can never win

But don't believe the lies
Just look a little deeper, and you will find the truth
There comes a breaking, there comes a breaking point
In every, in every

Era

We go...

Alright

Cause I'm the pimp
The cop
The crooked politician
I'm the hooker
The thief and the beggar on the street

Cause I'm the pimp
The cop
The crooked politician
I'm the hooker

Well smoke, smoke
Its coming from a tower
We drop the bombs, bombs, bombs
In an act of desperation
Guns, guns, guns
Loaded and they're cocked
We just got em pointed in the wrong direction

And don't believe the lies
STOP

Cause I was there in Tiananmen Square
And I was there on the grassy knoll
Cause I was there, but you just don't care
Powers rise, and Powers fall

Cause I was there in Tiananmen Square
And I was there on the grassy knoll
Cause I was there, but you just don't care

I was there
I was there
I was there
I was there

Cause tanks and bombs and nuclear weapons
(I was there)
They got me so damn scared
(I was there)
I said tanks and bombs and nuclear weapons

(I was there)
They got me so damn scared
(I was there)
Global warming and meteorites
They got me so damn scared
The price of blood for the price of oil
Yeah, its got me so damn scared
I said the future, yeah the future
Well its got me so damn scared
