I thought I'd write it in a letter
As I'm too shy to say it to you
I guess I should've known better
But I don't know what else to do

I'm on my way
No turning back
So take me in your arms
And then we'll be right on track

I write these words to you
To tell you just what you mean to me
I hope you like these lines
Cause I love you even more than yesterday
And all I say to you is true
Will you leave time to me
I'll wait and see
Cause all I need is you
Only you

You helped me through the stormiest weather
Your what I need to guide me through Without you nothing else matters
Your something I look forward to

You make my day
No holding back
So take me in your arms
And then we'll be right on track

I write these words to you

To tell you just what you mean to me
I hope you like these lines
Cause I love you even more than yesterday
And all I say to you is true
Will you leave time to me
I'll wait and see
Cause all I need is you
Only you

All I say to you is true

Because to me there is
Only you

You make my day
No holding back
So take me in your arms
And then we'll be right on track

I write these words to you
To tell you just what you mean to me
I hope you like these lines
Cause I love you even more then yesterday
And all I say to you is true
Will you leave time to me
I'll wait and see
Cause all I need is you
Only you

It's only you
It's only you
It's only you
[Repeat until fade]
