I love you more than the sands and the rain and the winds could ever say
I love you more than the moon when it shines to guide me on my way

Does it always hurt like this
Holding in the pain
Does it always hurt like this
Standing face to face

'Cause all I ever wanted was to hold you by my side
And all I ever wanted is gone

My jaded love
And all I have for you is pain
(And I won't let it go)
My jaded love
Time in pieces, time in soul
(And I won't let it go)

My jaded love (No)
My jaded love (No)
My jaded love (No)
My jaded love (No)

'Cause all I ever wanted was to hold you by my side
And all I ever wanted is gone

And all I ever wanted was to hold you by my side
And all I ever wanted
