Rolling back again
Rolling back inside your head
Rolling back again
Rolling back from what I said
I never should have Closed my eyes instead
And helped you feel misled
You showed me how to Close my eyes again
And dream of you instead
Instead of fretting over
All the ways we could give up

Make me fall for you
As if I had nothing else to do
How could you make me?

Holding back again
Holding like the time before
Well nevermore will I catch myself in the net of a heartache
Aiming toward the sky
Watch the arrows fly as high as all your dreams
Hoping to claim them, filling up with me
I close my eyes again
And dream of you instead
Instead of fretting over
All the ways we could keep up

Make me fall for you
As if I had nothing else to do
How could you make me?
Let me hold you true to everything I thought I knew
How could you make me?

Here we are like insects
Teeming for that one more hit of light
See your world in traces Never knew a pain could be so bright

Make me fall for you

As if I had nothing else to do
Make me fall for you
As if I had nothing else to do
As if I had nothing else to do
Yeah, let me hold you true to everything I thought I knew
(As if i had nothing else to do)
How could you make me?
