Did you finally break into her?
And would you mind me if I were as free as a bird now?
'Cause I will be with you tonight

Because I'm your passenger tonight
Roll down your windows & come out despite
I'm your passenger tonight
Throw down the throttle & come out tonight

Silence always will keep me, me
And act yet will we see today as free as a bird now
'Cause I will be with you tonight

Because I'm your passenger tonight
Roll down your windows & come out despite
I'm your passenger tonight
Throw down the throttle & come out tonight

Stumbling over all this pain
Just to find a common place
You & I? I'll lock the door

Well, I'm your passenger tonight
Roll down your windows & come out despite
I'm your passenger tonight
Throw down the throttle & come out tonight
