You cannot watch my show
You just can kiss my ear and blow into my eyes
Cause they're getting dry when I'm lying

You're constantly true
But I've learned to live without you until I'm dying
And everybodys crying for me but not for you

You cannot touch my face
So that I could just feel your grace and properties
And breath a holy breeze and rest in peace

Until I'm dying and everbodys crying
For me but not for you
So don't tell a soul
Ahhhhh...

Keep your existence to yourself x 4

Don't tell a soul and you wont be named cruel or a fool.
X 5

Yeah...

You cannot watch my show
You just can kiss my ear and blow into my eyes
Cause they're getting dry when I'm lying

You're constantly true
But I've learned to live without you until I'm dying
And everybodys crying

Don't tell a soul and you wont be named cruel or a fool.
X 8

Don't tell a soul... don't tell a soul no x 2

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhahhhhhh yeah
