Under the black light
I see right through you.
And I'm reaching for nothing
'Cause nothing is out there.
Just my heavy breathing
And I want it right now.
I can't shake this feeling
And I want it right now.

Five minutes is all I need.
Give me your hands.

Under the spotlight
We are one body.
Together we're reaching
For something beyond us.
And my heavy breathing
Is blocking out all sound.

I can't shake this feeling
And I need it right now.

Five minutes is all I need.
Give me your hands.

Just like a flashlight
We pierce through the darkness.
Our hearts are a hammer
Beating from inside.
And they want to escape us,
Pass into each other.
But we won't be broken,
'Cause our need is right now.

Five minutes is all I need.
Give me your hands.
