

My Forever "Rusted Visionary"

Visit "Rusted Visionary" on MotoLyrics.com

You took this promise away, a rusted visionary
Baby, baby, baby
Wrapped blankets sang half a chance
I know they call that romance
Baby, baby, baby

Its only slow words
We don't need that curse
You tempt me to burn
Can't pretend
We condemn
Can't pretend

I feel innocent with sunken smiles now
One last moment with you
Fly my delusioned angel
Higher than sleepless weather
Tainted point of view

Killing it for you
Killing it for you

Breathe hearts on frosty windows
Only fools wait till they melt Maybe, maybe, maybe Crushed iris dusky colours
Hotel match box tomorrows
Maybe, maybe, maybe

its only slow words
we don't need that curse
you tempt me to burn
can't pretend
we condemn
can't pretend

I feel innocent with sunken smiles now
One last moment with you
Fly my delusioned angel
Higher than sleepless weather
Tainted point of view

Seems like a whirl wind in my head
Take me to distantly I fled

Seems like a whirl wind in my head
Take me to distantly I fled
Can't pretend

I feel innocent with sunken smiles now
One last moment with you
Fly my delusioned angel
Higher than sleepless weather
Tainted point of view

Killing it for you
killing it for you
killing it for you
killing it for you
for you
