

My Forever "Those Summer Months"

Visit "Those Summer Months" on MotoLyrics.com

I'd make you happy if I could ("if I could") I'd pluck the stars from the sky so you can sleep at night if i could

I'd make you smile more if I could "(if I could") I'd throw a lasso around the moon and pull if I could

So take me there The sky must go somewhere

Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summer's long

It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summer's long

It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone

I'd fight your demons if I could "(if I could") I'd walk the fires of hell, let it burn through my shoes if I could

I'd write you more songs if I could ("if I could") I'd climb a mountain just to show you the view if I could

So take me there The sky must go somewhere

Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summer's long

It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summer's long

It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone

The summer's long
"the music the music the music"
These nights are gone
"the music the music the music the music"

The summer's long
"the music the music the music"
These nights are gone
"the music the music the music the music"

This summer's long
"the music the music the music"
These nights are gone
"the music the music the music the music"

Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summers long
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone
Standing there with sandals on, Bermuda shorts the summers long
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining, the music's gone
These nights are gone
