It's all in the way you carry yourself
Ever so slightly you lean to one side
Each moment moves slowly, the colours more defined
And I don't want it to change
It's all in the way you glide when you're walking
Your feet slide in motion, and don't touch the ground

And it's all in the way that you're mine
Yeah, it's all in the way that you're mine

It's all in the way we go out night walking
The skipping girl vineger she skips all through the night
Everything is effortless and out of control
And I don't want it to change, at least not for awhile

And it's all in the way that you're mine
Yeah it's all in the way that you're mine

And I'm just dreaming here in the silence
Lying down like an old dog
Lying down here in the grass taking my time
Thinking of other things

It's all in the way you lie when you're drinking
You tell me all kinds of improbable things
The old house feels empty and cold and uninviting
And lifeless when you're not around
It's all in the way your eyes stare straight through me
I don't get away with one miserable thing

And it's all in hte way that you're mine
Yeah it's all in the way that you're mine
Yeah it's all in the way that you're mine
