I spend my time on you
And I make my plot

And when you die
You will beg for your life

I will find you I will fucking find
This time I know there's no where to hide

I'll take it back
Become the sunset that once was
All this black space

I will not buy into your fucking lies X2
I will never care to hear the sound of your cry's
The sound of your cry's
Waiting for the end of your life

These lies have dug your hole deep
You have no friends who fucking care
I see the lies on the lies
On the sunset arise once more
It's safe to say that for once I feel complete
These words now are no joking I'll leave you left with nothing
To find
A way to put an end to this

At All cost
