I'm falling on my knees
This has been for too long
The time is on my path
Of my extinction

As I Bleed
I Will See

My eyes see the sanity, I will break that to see identity, just because you see My Life

You will be talking to my ghost when I'm far and gone,
FAR AND GONE

The colors flow deep you'll see my face no more

We came so close but yet so far

We lost every sense of reality
At once fuck your sorrows and awake of my despair

I will not become a victim
I will see you till the end
You will bleed from the inside
I will not fail to rise against

He Cry's
He Cry's

Your lifeless there's nothing left for me to say
To your face, I will break my fucking chest

As I return, so will it be. So wheres my fucking attention.
So there's nothing left for me to say.

I will not become a victim
I will see you till the end
You will bleed from the inside
I will not fail to rise against
