she said it's over
i don't stand a chance
she said it honestly
i wish that she lied

her words said it all minus me, minus the actions and the understanding
she will never do

i never take advantage
and i don't have the guts
she dropped me out
she's leaving me

it's the last time
did i pushed you hard
you didn't mean to make me cry well, that's okay who's wrong and understanding, you'll never understand what you think and what i feel doesn't make any sense
