I've been down and feeling lonely
Cuz I just think of you all day
And when I heard you weren't comin' home to me
I just wanna die, wanna run away

So I went to the doctor to find
If everything was doing alright
I went to the doctor to say
Can you give me something please to make this go away?

Cuz without you
I can't go on Without love
Will I be strong?
Without you
I don't wanna live at all
Without you I can't go on
Without you

Since you've been gone things are going so wrong
I just sit around all day
And now I know you're never coming home to me
I just wanna die, wanna run away

You know I will never let you fall
Cuz I will see you through every night
You'll never be alone
The best of me you know you're gonna have it all
All you got to do is call
