How much can you hold in a manger?
What can fit in a bed so small?
Is there room for this boy
And heaven sized joy
Can it cradle the hope of us all?

Stables were never designed for
The Lord of the Universe
No barn could contain
The glory that came
Or the grace that would blanket the earth

He is more, oh heâ€™s more
Than Bethlehem was ready for

Peace and light, joy and truth and love
Peace and light, and joy and truth and love
Endless overflow from God above
Peace and light, joy and truth and love

How can my heart host a Savior
Life is crowded and far too full
But the mercy he brings
Bursts all the seams
Creating a space in my soul

He is more, oh heâ€™s more
Than we could ever thank him for

Chorus

Unto us is born
Unto us is given
Christ the Son of God
Gift that never ends

Chorus
