You've taken all my tears away
You've been gone so long
Now everything has turned to grey
It all seems so wrong
Now I see
Everything has come to me
Without you
I don't know who will set me free
You came into my life that day
Seems so long ago
Then all my troubles went away
Dread(beg) for yesterday
Now I see
Everything has come to me
Without you
No one can set me free
Now I see
Everything has come to me
Without you
No one can set me free
Now I see
Everything has come to me
Without you
I am lost, set me free
