Your life is over and you don't know what's in store.
Your soul was never yours, the devil waits no more.
You'll rise to do my work and i know you'll do it well
'cause you're the killer may you never rot in hell.

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Welcome to my nightmare - it's just for you.

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Killer's gonna get you - look out.

You see him coming but he's moving slow,
He's waiting at the door but you don't want to go.
He'll take you over, show you what's in your mind.
Faces, places, sins you never dreamed that he could find.

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Welcome to my nightmare - it's just for you.

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Killer's gonna get you - look out.

Don't try to run now - don't even start,
He'll break your body and tear your mind apart.
You'll rise immortal from among these fires of hell
You're the killer and you'll never rot in hell

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Welcome to my nightmare - it's just for you.

Pull up a chair, enjoy the view

Killer's gonna get you - look out.
