Girl, we can make it right/
Just wait until tonight/
She actin' like my beats blew her heart away/
(Ohh) I know what you like/
And I don't wanna fight/
So we should show our love in another way/

I'm on that pop and lockin', throwie rockin' type of thang/
Ray Bans and Robocop I just came out the 80's mang/
I'll make it brief I got a passion for flashin'/
I make it hail with the rhymes that I'm rappin'/
I am the wiser choice cause your man real soft like a scented candle/
My crew knows how to dress and we go ape shit Naomi Campbell/
I'm way ahead and I wanna keep it fair but/I'm calling people skanks like they hatin' on my hair cut/

Girl, we can make it right/
Just wait until tonight/
She actin' like my beats blew her heart away/
(Ohh) I know what you like/
And I don't wanna fight/
So we should show our love in another way/

Still rockin' starter caps, you can all invest in a new career/
Still beat you in your dreams cause I run this game
like a musketeer/
Girlfriend, your man is not the type you should be dating though/
I'll have him stuterring like d-d-d don't taze me bro/
Ditch him he keeps you yawnin'/

Pick me I'm Don Perignonin'/
We party hearty and we dance all night to the early morning/
Give him some space girl and tell him you when you're grounded/
Just leave him at the bar and make that ass look astounded/

Girl, we can make it right/
Just wait until tonight/
She actin' like my beats blew her heart away/
(Ohh) I know what you like/
And I don't wanna fight/
So we should show our love in another way/

Yup, she lookin' like a next top model chick
She's lookin' fierce head to toe so I gotta pick
They know I'm livin large, that I shine all day like
Mr. Clean/
Lay down and mix a track, son I got more bounce than a trampoline/
Say so, then it's prolly true/
Get, more girls then the motley crue/
Look, with him girl you won't get far/
His style is a big faux-pas/
Yea, I got the flavour/Bitch I do it major/
Talkin' out your ass you can bet I see ya later/

Girl, we can make it right/
Just wait until tonight/
She actin' like my beats blew her heart away/
(Ohh) I know what you like/
And I don't wanna fight/
So we should show our love in another way/
