She's a strawberry Milkshake
She's as sweet as a peach
But she's ice cold
She never told me, she was leaving
She left on a Friday
I went out for the day
She left for the year
She never told me she was leaving

So get yourself on an aeroplane cos it's been far too long since you went away
Get yourself on an aeroplane cos it's been far too long since you went away

She's so extraordinary
And that's the reason I miss you so

She's a messy creation
She hit the road but the road hit back
Nobody told me you're an island
I would wait for a life time
I've been counting the days since you left one way
Nobody reaches her island

So get yourself on an airplane cos it's been far too long
since you went away
Get yourself on an airplane cos it's been far long since you went away

She's so extrardinary
She left last Janurary
And that's the reason I miss you so

So give me a chance
I want you to know
I won't love you and leave you
And then let you go

I'll either sort myself out
Or somebody show me the way

And nobody knows the way
And nobody knows the way
And nobody knows the way
And nobody knows the way

Nobody knows

You gotta give me a chance
And say you'll come home
I won't love you and leave you
And then let you go
Your always hard on yourself

And nobody knows the way
And nobody knows the way
And nobody knows the way

No body knows the right way

And Get yourself on that airplane cos it's been far too
Get yourself on that airplane cos it's been far too long
since you went away
since you went away
since you went away
since you went away
Get yourself on that airplane cos it's been far too long

She's so extraordinary
