Terror by thy name burning thine bridge and heart
The same a year to drain my innocence and course it though your blackened veins Oh demoness, what has our daughter become?
Trash for the insects to eat
What color eyes should be staring at me in my dreams Abomination born in a union of hate, killed in the name of the free and of our son.
To the sickle he clung, a featureless face for your nightmarish dreams.
Dilate extract dilate and bury it all mother v ampirc mistress of night fed blood who pets her child's.
