My friend george, he went way
Left me here alone to stay
From dusk till dawn I sit and wait
Focused on the things I hate
Everyday is like today
A bleeding nose and a tongue of clay
My heart's white, I'm crucified
Moveless till the day I die

Will it ever stop to hurt
Will I ever wash away my pain

I've got myself a universe
Of bitter tears I do deserve
A pair of arms that hold me tight
And lead me to that stage of light
Promises and overview
Some hope for me and you
It's bout time to understand
My friends gone he wont come back

Will it ever stop to hurt
Will I ever wash away my pain
