"Stay"

She took the first train and went from town to town
She was heading for the moon
All her lovers they all let her down
So many heroes on her way

Like a sailor she skipped from place to place
She was running after time
Slow motion movements took her far away
She walked down every single shore

Hush now and dry your eyes
You got to believe when I say
We're safe from harm

Stay here
Let your love come over
Stay here
Let your love come over

On our playground the rules are simply made
We just need to betray the world
You're the meaning you're the answer
And the source
Let this story never end

Stay here
Let your love come over
Stay here
Let your love come over
