You ain't got no job. You ain't got no car. You ain't got
No food. You ain't got no spark.
You ain't got no say if you ain't no count. You ain't got Money, so you ain't got no clout.
Oh ain't life hard when you're playing the cards?
You ain't got no style. You ain't got no grace. You ain't Got no lovin'. You ain't got no face.
You ain't got no place to lay your head. Your momma won't
Talk to you and your daddy's dead.
Oh ain't life hard when you're playing the cards?
Dealer won't you hit me just one last time please? I got
A feeling that my luck will change.
Gonna pull an ace out next time - guaranteed. Gotta
keep
Playing till I win the game. I can't win this game.
You ain't got no cash. You ain't got no checks. You ain't Got no chips. But you gotta lotta debt.
You've run out of time. It's the end of the game. You're Stranded in a casino without a dime to your name.
Oh ain't life hard when you're playing the cards?
Dealer won't you hit me just one last time please? I got
A feeling that my luck will change.
Gonna pull an ace out next time - guaranteed. Gotta
keep
Playing till I win the game. I can't win this game.
