For 15 days and not one more
I had dreams like non before
The visions I thought could not be
Became my feared reality

What I thought was true till then
Was obscured till the moment when
I woke up from this dreadful dream
My eyes still blurred from what I'd seen

My nightmares they are chasing me
What is the truth of what I see
Would someone please be ending this
Could someone wake me with a kiss

I've had enough of misery
I can not trust in what I see
Awake or dreaming I can't tell
For all to long I'm trapped in hell

I have no words in which to tell
I can't recall how long I fell
It's like I had a second life
Was sent to gunfight with a knife

It was impossible to know
Which hidden bomb was next to blow
And every step that I had done
Could always be my final one
