I saw a dream
A frightening dream
Pouring over that distancing back
I started looking once again
For the warmth that was supposed to be there

In a night where I am exposed
I couldn't find a place to escape to
I was hesitating and once again
I blamed myself

So stay by my side
Say you will forever
Until you drown out the devils' voice
So that I won't lose you
I'll softly make sure

Even if important memories become mistakes
Somehow they still seem beautiful

A blue butterfly
It's my favorite hair band
I decorated it on the nape of my neck
As it whirled in the wind,

You laughed that it looked like a specimen

A whirlpool swallows the light
But being too kind
I was ready to pull the trigger
To stop it

So stay by my side
Make sure to hold me
Until I start melting in your hands
The pleasure that makes my breath stop

The dried up promise
Leaves a keloid
Because it is so dear

So stay by my side
Say you will forever
Until you drown out the devils' voice
So that I won't lose you
I'll softly make sure

Even if everything
Someday becomes a mistake
I wouldn't mind, because I'd still have love.
