They like oppression; they live in peace with all that's wrong
They hurt with purpose, they see the innocent fall to their knees
They'll never accept you, they'll act like you belong then throw you right Back off

(Chorus):

Don't let it be, I won't let it be
Don't ever become one of them
See what I mean, try to understand You'll never be seen like really are, if you become one of them

They don't like to lose; they'll step right over you If you're standing in their way, they wish that life would drop you,
And leave you hung by your most precious possession Their malevolent possessed about to become their worst enemy

(Chorus):

Don't let it be, I won't let it be
Don't ever become one of them
See what I mean, try to understand
You'll never be seen like really are,
If you become one of them

(Bridge):

People like them, never make it far
They'll drop everything, like they drop their selves
They might just make you turn into one of them

(Chorus): - 2x

Don't let it be, I won't let it be
Don't ever become one of them
See what I mean, try to understand
You'll never be seen like really are,
If you become one of them
