"I Want Nothing"

I want nothing but the love of the next stranger

Who walks through that door

And I want nothing but to dissolve in the night

And to feel direction no more

And I want nothing, no, I want nothing

No, I want nothing, no, I want nothing

And I want nothing but to follow you

'Til we can walk no more

And I want nothing but to cut away

Until I find the core

And I want nothing, no, I want nothing

No, I want nothing, no, I want nothing

No, I want nothing, no, I want nothing

No, I want nothing, no, I want nothing
