Until it comes again

It used to be, it was all I want, my only care

Nothing else had a single part to play in my head

But now times led my mind astray

Something was changed along the way

And no amount of tears can bring it back round

'Til it comes again

So maybe we should pretend we're who we want to be

And forget who we really are and where we really be 'Cause I've no time to start again but I won't lie to a bitter end

Can we keep it down until it's back round

'Til it comes again?

Until it comes again, until it comes again

One more time to take the test to make it real

Or one more nail in this relationship make it impossible to heal

On the good ship hope we sail

But the stars above say the wind will fail

Can we keep afloat until it's back round

Until it comes again?

Until it comes again, until it comes again

Until it comes again, until it comes again
