Ive been tried
And Ive been tested
I was born tired
I never got rested
Harder than
Marble Stone
I'm better off
Better off left alone
Cause I'm not the one
No not the one

You wanted it all
But I give you
Give you none
I'm not the one

Well like a toy
To a kid
I said jump
And momma you did
And you know
Your Daddy knows
And your Momma knows
Thats wrong
So now its time
For me to move on
Because I'm not the
No Im not the one

You wanted it all
And I give you
Give you none
Im not the one

No, on no, no
Im not the one

No, oh no, no
Im not the one

You think that

I'm normal
All these years
Im just trying to warn ya
Youd do good to move on
No it wont
It wont hurt me none
Cause Im not the one
No Im not the one

You wanted it all
But I give you
Give you none
Im not the one
No Im not the one
Yeah

No, no, no
Im not the one

Not the one for you

Not the one

Not the one
