

Black Maria, The "The Lines We Cross"

Visit "The Lines We Cross" on MotoLyrics.com

Something comes over me
There's poison coming from the TV
The buzzing attracts the fleas
I've seen the sun rise for weeks

We're lost in each other
What's one without the other
Fused together
Fused together

Paranoid by the sound of the streets
Wood creaks like the march of machines
My blood lust consuming me
My hunger is matched by my greed

We're lost in each other
What's one without the other
Fused together
Fused together

Save us from the killer's eye'
Save us from the lines we cross
