foolish but perfect and peace full at heart bitchy and demanding is how i aint shown yelling and screaming aint just how i roll dont torment me leave me im going alone...

i waited for my self to wake before i begun and lies tell truth but dont tell you ,a place were im unknown not foolishly shamefully pleading my case foolish me and dishonest a disgrace to all i stand for the darkness of unknown the way i feel has no appeal to the.... fooolish dont take the shit out of me your making a fuss your becoming a ha-bit your framing your state of mind to follow my ways get out why your not foolish unknown and at rest tell the truth about the marks that got on your wrist

were im
case foolish me and dishonest a disgrace to all
i feel has no appeal to the.... fooolish

i cant be so stupid i cant be so blind leave me to fuking be i stand for you all who dont have a saftey and will die if you fall i stand for all the darkness that interfears with light im a shame to my own name foolish foolish me
