"Stay There"

We started like this
Ended with this
That's how it goes
No one knows
How to change it

Snow flakes, fall down
Come back, come around
Clarity, it's just blurred now

We ended when we started to depend
Let me know, when the ground is snow
To stay there, stay there, stay there

I never had any intention
Tell me the way to redemption
Stay here, stay here, stay here

But let me know
When you need to go
So I can know when to say
If that's the day
To stay here, stay here, stay here

Falling back down, and landed so rough
It's okay now, you've had enough
So stay here, stay here, stay here

And now your heart beat
Seems so sick it's stopping now
Please stay here, stay here, stay here
