(Spread a little light)
(Spread a little light, tonight)

I know I'm not the only one feeling all alone right now
(Right now)
Cause I can see the candle lights through the windows on the other side
I wonder if you see me through your window too,
If your heart is broken just like mine

Spread a little light tonight, tonight, tonight
Gimme just a little sign, and I'll be fine
Send a little love, cause it's getting dark
No one should be alone, when it's getting cold
Tonight, tonight

I tried to laugh my tears away
Travelled around the world to escape
But loneliness is everywhere
Without the one I love it's not the same

Spread a little light tonight, tonight, tonight
Gimme just a little sign, and I'll be fine
Send a little love, cause it's getting dark
No one should be alone, when it's getting cold
Tonight, tonight, tonight

Those silent nights can break you
Don't let the darkness take you
I light a candle

Spread a little light tonight, tonight, tonight
Gimme just a little sign, and I'll be fine
Send a little love, cause it's getting dark (It's getting dark)
No one should be alone, when it's getting cold (When it's getting cold)

(Spread a little light tonight, tonight, tonight)
Spread a little light tonight
Gimme just a little sign, and I'll be fine

Send a little love, cause it's getting dark (Oh, It's getting dark)
No one should be alone, say you're coming home (Say you're coming home)
Tonight, tonight
Spread a little light tonight
Tonight, tonight
Spread a little light tonight, tonight
