I'll be holding on for time.
Yes I'll be holding on for time.
I wouldn't deceive you or tell you a lie.
I'll be holding on this time.
Why can't I see for sight?
And do you always have to be right.
There's no recovery because you're the cure and know one answers your door.

Well it's just so for you to ignore,
we've all made mistakes that we're sorry for.
I hope you realise that I'll make no compromise. I'll be holding on for time,

'till that time begins to slide.
I once had you, you could have been mine and
I'll be holding on this time.
Well it's just so easy for you to ignore, everybody makes mistakes that they're sorry for and I hope you realise that I'll make no compromise for you.

Do you here my words to ignore me?
Look into my eyes to scorn me?
Do I have to get down on my knees?
To break down?
So I'll be holding on for time.
Only you can read my mind.
I once held you close, you could have been mine but I'll be holding on,
yes I'll be holding on this time.
Well it's just so easy to try and ignore,
you've made mistakes yourself.
You were never sorry for and I hope you realise I'll make no compromise

for you but I'll be holding on.
