

Screaming Jets

"Meet Anybody"

Visit "Meet Anybody" on MotoLyrics.com

I can see the world I have
Come down, down on me
This place we all belong to
Is falling down
Some just can't get enough
The unfortunate ones never had that much
It's not that I'm uneasy
You know that I would never give up hope
It's just the empty promises
Of the main men I think I've had enough
It's always the same
It's never too easy
We're kept in the dark
You're always in a frenzy
You've taken it all
And you still want more
Enough is enough
Nobody wants your war
I never want to meet anybody
I never want to meet 'em like you
I never want to meet anybody
Nobody that resembles you
If you're not educated
And you can't understand their policies
It's all so complicated
But at least you've got a heart
To tell you what's wrong
Some just don't get enough
The unfortunate ones never had that much
It's not that you didn't start it
It's not that someone's right or wrong
Let's get back down to earth
And finish off what we've begun
I never want to meet anybody
I never want to meet 'em like you
I never want to meet anybody
Nobody that resembles you

Visit Screaming Jets page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

