"The Cosmic Rule"

Visit "The Cosmic Rule" on MotoLyrics.com

In this dark room lies my lifeless body. Why are you
Crying for my death?
I have reached the eternal sleep what am I for you?
Am I these flesh remnants or am I the spirit?
In this ethereal air I hear your words of sorrow
Why don't you leave my coffin? I am immortal
Your thoughts will make me immortal and I won't be alone
The great anesthetist will guide my path forget the Torment of the parting
I will return to the living but you won't be able to Discern me
We are all damned to death it is the cosmic rule
Am I these flesh remnants or am I the spirit?
In this ethereal air I hear your words of sorrow
