

Screaming Monkey Boner "Shun"

Rise up, above the fog, above the world, which you have wronged
We lift you up, above it all, the higher you go, the farther
you fall
Take one last look, the world won't take you back, your final
gaze, before it
all turns black
Say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight, say goodnight

The poison rolls in, puts out your flame, the candle flickers, it's all the same,
In the end, you wake before you drown, final gaze,
before it
all comes down

(chorus)
If you turn your back on me, and shun me like society, you
will learn the meaning, of separation anxiety, Wait until my love (your life) has faded, dried up, and dissipated, dried up
died and faded away.

(Additional)
You're being over dramatic, you're being over dramatic,
you're being over
dramatic, you're being over dramatic,
Don't you fucking shun me.
