There seems to be no relief in sight from the never-ending procession of mindless drones,
Matching forward like the slow cruel juggernaut of time
and circumstance,
Steadily overtaking every aspect, every cubic centimeter of conscious life.
Remain in your homes.
Maintain your current rate of consumption.
You must repress your fight or flight instincts and exercise passive resistance.
Stay tuned for further instruction...

I repeat:
Remain calm,
Remain passive.

Resistan... ce.

We must fight... and con... consume

Deconstruct.
De... de... deconstruct.
Erase.

Program reboot.

Alignment off.

Produce... fear,
Fear.
Remain passive.
Resistance... resist instinct.
Fear
F... f... f... fear
Resistance...
The inevitable.

You're only delaying the inevitable (repeated)
