Boys and girls come one come all, join the crowd and celebrate Dress your best, come to the ball, and find a whole new kind of hate Push and shove to the bitter end, there's nowhere left to turn Sell yourself to buy it all, all you are is what you earn It's no use why even try, we've been down this road before room for one
Just six feet down, who could ask for anything more

Save me from the passing of the days
And the slow decay of time before I drift away

Hold on tight, resist the speed the process accelerates Just sit back and enjoy the ride, it doesn't matter anyway
It's no use why even try, we've been down this road
before room for one
Just six feet down, who could ask for anything more

Save me from the passing of the days
And the slow decay of time before I drift away
How can this, this be real? I just can't believe

They will break you in the end, yes they will They will break you in the end, they always do, yes lawd
They will break you in the...

Save me from the passing of the days
And the slow decay of time before I drift away
How can this, this be real? I just can't believe
