White collar criminals control our countries
Constrict our airflow and neural pathways
Must resist the strong temptation
To inflict artificial social morays

An invisible gun to every head
Same finger on each trigger
Watch me bring the hammer down
Before the problem gets much bigger
Oh, bring the hammer down

I don't really want to live in a system this complicated
Why are we afraid to die when life is so over-rated?
Trapped inside a little box, every turn a man with a frown
An illusion of possibilities, but the only way out is down

So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die
So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die

Die, die, die

White collar criminals control our countries
Constrict our airflow and neural pathways
Must resist the strong temptation
To inflict artificial social morays

An invisible gun to every head
Same finger on each trigger
Watch me bring the hammer down
Before the problem gets much bigger

So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die
So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die

So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die

I'm going to hell and I'm taking you with me
So testify and be extra crispy

So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die
So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die, yeah
