

Screaming Monkey Boner "Worship The Joker"

Once upon a moonlit night, He gave the world an awful fright,
Carrying out His master plan, to put a happy face on every woman and man
Now we live in harmony, in madness I've found joy and glee,
I take solace in his grin, for only He, would laugh at my sins
Those who deny his eternal love, shall be smoten from above,
You can find happiness too, like the worshipers of The Joker
do (chorus)
If you ask me, I will tell you, "I have found, the Joke's on you."
